Daemen College

quality of our self-study report. According to the notification letter, the commission officially reaffirmed Daemen College's accreditation at its June 23 meeting.

This reaffirmation of accreditation speaks to the high quality of your academic programs, faculty, and staff, and our ability to provide a first-rate education to our students. The decision was based on a highly positive peer evaluation team report that followed a successful three-day site visit in March. The report commended on our self-study as a testament to the diligence and extensive effort of many in our college community.

I wish to extend my deepest appreciation and congratulations to the Steering Committee, led by co-chairs Dr. Kathleen Boone, Dr. Kevin Telford and Dr. Susan Marchione.
To the entire college community, I offer my sincerest thanks for your support and contributions to this college-wide endeavor.

Cordially,
